Dear Friend,

ZAMI, Inc., is a not for profit collective of lesbians of African descent residing in the Atlanta Metropolitan area. Founded in 1990, ZAMI is named for the 'biomythography' of African American feminist, lesbian, poet Audre Lorde whose life, work and spirit are embodied in the Caribbean word, "ZAMI", which means women who work together as friends and lovers.

In 1995, ZAMI established the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund to award scholarships to lesbians of African descent enrolled in undergraduate, post-secondary institutions within the state of Georgia. We are writing to ask your financial support of our scholarship fund. More than half of the funds for the scholarships come from private donations; the remainder is derived from our programming efforts. The first scholarships were awarded in 1997.

In 1998, ZAMI will award four $1,000.00 scholarships named for activists in the African American lesbian community:

The Mary Anne Adams award is named for ZAMI's President, who resides in Atlanta, and is the founder/creator of the Audre Lorde Scholarship.

The Catherine E. McKinley award is named for the New Jersey based writer and editor of the groundbreaking work, Afrekete: An Anthology of Black Lesbian Writing.

The Dr. Iris Fawzia Rafi award is named for the co-founder of ZAMI. Dr. Rafi is a former professor of literature at Spelman College and Clark Atlanta University and makes her home in Atlanta.

The fourth scholarship is named for New Yorker, Jocelyn Taylor, prominent lesbian video artist, writer, and producer of the video, "Bodily Functions" among others.

The ZAMI collective thanks you, in advance, for your support in our endeavors to sustain the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund.

Sincerely,

ZAMI Steering Committee Members:

Mary Anne Adams Beryl Jackson Iris Fawzia Rafi Michelle R. Smith Frances E. Wood
